

Student Handbook and Code of Conduct

1. Fee Payment

The last date for payment of semester fees is fifteen days from the official start of the semester. A late fee of 500 rupees per day is charged after the deadline, subject to a maximum late fee of 5000 rupees. A student who has not paid the fees within thirty days of the deadline will have their registration for the semester cancelled.

2. Library Rules

Undergraduate students may borrow up to four books at a time for a period of fourteen days. Books may be renewed twice provided they have not been reserved by another member. A fine of 5 rupees per day is levied for each overdue book.

Reference books, journals, and rare collections are not issued and may be consulted only within the library premises. Loss of a borrowed book requires replacement with a new copy or payment of twice the current market price.

3. Hostel and Leave

Hostel residents must record their entry and exit in the register maintained at the gate. Students leaving the campus for more than two days must obtain prior leave approval from the warden. The hostel gate closes at 10 PM, and late entry requires written permission.

4. Anti-Ragging and Discipline

Ragging in any form is strictly prohibited and is a punishable offence under the regulations of the institute and the law of the land. Any student found guilty of ragging shall face suspension and, in severe cases, expulsion from the institute.

A student grievance may be submitted in writing to the Office of the Dean of Student Welfare. The grievance committee is required to respond within fifteen working days of receiving a complaint.
